

The double bordered boxes indicate a governing body

The extremely complicated relationship of the family of Masonic orders.

The main purpose of the chart is to illustrate how each of the Masonic orders operating in Western Australia link to one another. In many instances, it is necessary to belong to more than one order to qualify to for membership to some others. More importantly, it shows how all orders are subordinate to Craft Freemasonry and therefore ultimately to Grand Lodge.